

2021 ANNUAL REPORT

FRIENDS OF FORMAN CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

A NOTE FROM FORMAN CHRISTIAN COLLEGE

Dr. Jonathan Addleton
Rector
Forman Christian College

What a joy it was to see students return to campus on June 7 to start the final four weeks of the 2021 spring semester! While limited numbers of faculty and staff continued to work on campus all year, students -- the heart of any university -- were notable by their physical absence.

In fact, only university students with "even" ID numbers returned in June while those with "odd" ID numbers continued to receive instruction on-line. Two weeks later, roles were reversed, highlighting the main features of a "blended" system involving in-person and on-line instruction.

While 2020-2021 will always be remembered as a year dominated by COVID-19, the Forman family demonstrated its resilience in many gratifying ways. Importantly, Forman was ranked by Pakistan's Higher Education Commission (HEC) as one of the top universities in the country in terms of its ability to provide on-line instruction.

Friends of Forman who have contributed to strengthening Forman's IT systems in recent years played a big part in this success. At the same time, the generosity displayed during the Friends COVID-19 appeal raising almost $40,000 in emergency funds also helped so many.

Relying on the Pakistan public health system to provide free vaccines, Friends of Forman emergency funds were used for a range of other pandemic-related purposes including educational materials, testing, protective gear and related equipment for Mercy Health Center. Separately, scholarship funding was directed toward students and families directly affected by COVID-19.

Looking ahead, Forman's enrollment and budget situation are both in an encouraging place as we find our way through the pandemic. Looking back, we are grateful for your prayerful support through Friends of Forman which has made this possible.

"I am so grateful for Dr. Jonathan Addleton's appointment as rector even as Forman continued to educate students during the pandemic. His leadership, following Dr. Jim Tebbe's retirement, was just what was needed to stay the course. Please continue to pray for the university, Dr. Addleton, and his whole team as they serve Pakistan with Forman's unique interfaith model of higher education."

DONOR HIGHLIGHTS

TARIQ & SHERRY CHAUDHRY

Mohammad (Tariq) Chaudhry grew up in Lahore, Pakistan and graduated from FC College in 1971. He met his wife, Sherry, while working in Texas.

Family trips to Pakistan helped Sherry see the importance of educating women which led her to serve on the Friends of Forman board. Now she and Mohammad are funding the Sherry & Tariq Chaudhry Family Endowment Fund for Women at Forman.

“Creating this scholarship through Friends of Forman will give young women opportunities to improve their lives, their family, and help a country see the value of women while supporting their efforts to earn their rights in society.”

UREEM & NEHEL JAMES

Last year Ureem and Nehel James married and moved to the Washington, DC area. Pakistani by birth, they met as college students while studying in the US. Knowing the needs and challenges for Christians in their home country, they now make a monthly gift to Friends of Forman for scholarships.

“Supporting scholarships for Christians at FC College is important for us because we see the Christian struggle in Pakistan as a multi-faceted problem. We believe that having an educated and qualified Christian community is necessary to bridge the economic gap. Forman Christian College is vital to this mission.”

ENROLLMENT TRENDS

“A lot of people and family members have hopes from me to enlighten my family’s name and community. My father is a peasant by profession and the only earning member of the family. We are four brother and sisters and all of us are pursuing our education.

I got COVID-19 and my health condition was very serious. I had no strength to even read the notes provided by my instructors. At the same time, all markets were closed due to lockdown and my father didn’t had a chance to sell the crops. We suffered heavy losses. With time, I recovered and now I am physically fit, but I do not have the resources to pay my tuition fee so I applied for Financial Aid.” - Zakyass

"After my father's death in 2012, my mother started working as a schoolteacher but her salary wasn't enough to carry out all the expenses and we started living with our grandmother. All of my academic expenses are managed by my uncle. FCCU's fee was not affordable for us, so I applied for financial aid in order to continue my education. I am so grateful to FCCU for this financial support.

I am pursuing a degree in Biotechnology and have always been inclined towards the field of medicine. I aspire to promote open science programs and schools in Pakistan which are extremely rare to be found." - Rauhah “Over the past 11 years as President of the Presbyterian Foundation, I’ve seen or reviewed countless benevolent organizations that donors support. Certain ones unquestionably stand out. Forman Christians College is one of those organizations.

Located in Lahore, Pakistan, Forman is in a place often associated with conflict and unrest. Yet when you drive through its gates from the dusty streets of the city, you are immediately calmed and inspired by the green gardens and dignified campus that serves its 8,000 students. Having met with the students and reviewed the programs and even finances of Forman Christian College, I was deeply impressed that the school uses its resources wisely, efficiently, and responsibly. Most impressive to me at Forman, though, is how the largely Muslim student population and its Christian students as well as students of other faiths come together every day to learn, but also to make and enjoy deep and lasting friendships with one another long into the future.

In an age of so much acrimony, Forman Christian College is training tomorrow’s leaders in an environment of peace, care and mutual respect. I view Forman Christian College as a true beacon of hope for the future. It’s worthy of your gifts.”
