Your Impact at FCCU

There are three schools on the Forman Christian College campus

“Friends of Forman contributes in significant ways toward making Forman Christian College (A Chartered University) a better place. Last year, those contributions not only included generous funding for scholarships; they also helped turn the dream of a new Campus Center and a state-of-the art Media Center into reality.”

FCCU Rector Dr. Jonathan Addleton

Student Stories

Arooba

Bachelor's Student
Major: English Literature

"I chose to get enrolled in FCCU so that I could get a degree from a good institution.

FCCU has a positive and welcoming environment for everyone no matter which part of the country or ethnicity you belong to.

My mother is the earning head of our family, and she is a teacher. I have three siblings and all of us are studying. I applied for financial aid because my mother is a widow, and we are facing financial difficulties.

FCCU has helped me by providing me financial aid for 8 semesters continuously."

Biptas

Bachelor's Student
Major: Christian Studies

"FCCU is like my second home, and I am having a lot of benefits from it in the shape of financial aid and spiritually from the Christian Life Program.

This institute made me confident enough to speak anywhere and trained me for leadership.

In my university experience I have learned how to deal with difficult situations. Sometimes it seems like there is not any other way but in FCCU there is always another way. I learned how to interact with people of different faiths and cultures. My future goal is to study Biblical Studies and serve my people through my education."

We want to educate as many academically qualified Pakistani students as possible, but we can't do it without you. If you have a preference regarding which group of students you wish to help, tell us when you make your gift. Women? Christian? Muslim? Any deserving student? The choice is yours.

Alumni Testimonies

Fenike

BS in Education & Certificate in Biblical Language: Hebrew

“I would like to continue my studies in Biblical Studies at FCCU. I am writing for the Pakistani government, where they are expecting to develop a Biblical syllabus for Christian students here.

I cannot forget the support that FCCU gave me. It nourished me mentally, spiritually, and educationally. I am overwhelmed because I am the first female graduate among my family members.

I really enjoyed the liberal arts setup at FCCU because it enhanced and improved my skills. There is no discrimination according to creed, color, and religion here.”

Dr. Iqtidar Cheema

Human Rights &
Religious Freedoms
Advisor to the United Nations

“Looking back on my undergraduate studies at FCCU, no words can fully describe the positive impact of this great institution on my life.

The education I received was spectacular.

The University professors gave me unique and intense learning experiences in political sciences, history, and English language. I am grateful for the excellent learning resources at the library and for skills development through co-curricular activities, debating society, and clubs. This conducive academic environment equipped me with critical thinking, analytical, and problem-solving skills.

FCCU gave me the resilience and endurance to continue through challenges and the confidence to learn. My memories, knowledge, and skills acquired at FCCU are pillars of strength.”

With Gratitude for Our Church Partners

In 2022-2023, FCCU received gifts from the churches (or their foundations) included here. We thank them for their benevolent support and partnership in this unique mission. Their generosity is exemplary of the FCCU motto, “by love serve one another.”

Our Board of Directors

“Who would believe that there is a distinctively Christian university in the heart of a Muslim nation that brings together people of all faiths on a campus that some students describe as a slice of heaven? Who would believe that, unabashedly in the name of Christ, people of all faiths are living and learning together, both men and women, the rich as well as the poorest of the poor, becoming leaders of the nation they love? All this and more is taking place at Forman Christian College in Lahore, Pakistan, and that is why I am passionate about sharing my time and treasure for its vital mission.”
